What Makes One Founders Place Special?

Design

Architecturally stunning inside and out, leading architecture practice, Allford Hall Monaghan Morris, have created a workplace which is flooded with natural light and has stunning panoramic views and outdoor terraces. It is technologically advanced, supremely accessible and has human wellbeing and environmental considerations at the top of the list of design essentials. A workplace to be proud of for the most meaningful reasons.

Location

At the very heart of historic Newcastle upon Tyne, right beside the city's central rail station connecting the North East to the rest of the UK on the East Coast mainline. It is five minutes from the Metro light railway network, which connects the Tyne & Wear regional and major bus routes. On foot or by bike, it is just a few minutes to the city's fantastic cultural, hospitality and retail experiences and Newcastle's iconic Quayside, part of the famous C2C national cycle route.

Located in one of the UK's best connected urban hubs

Bus links

With direct connections between Newcastle and Gateshead, the Quaylink buses provide a high-quality, environmentally friendly operation to get around the city.

Green cycle lanes

With around 16km of new cycle routes developed within the city, there's plenty of safe and scenic paths to explore. Pedal along the River Tyne and enjoy a wonderfully straight and flat route through the leafy, tree-lined cycle paths or head east towards the North East coast on the epic Coast-to-Coast cycle route.

Intercity Metro links

An overground and underground light rail transit system servicing Newcastle upon Tyne, Gateshead, North Tyneside, South Tyneside and the City of Sunderland. A quick and easy to access transport network on the doorstep of One Founders Place.

One Founders Place couldn't be better placed. In the heart of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, it's less than a 5-minutes walk from Central Station. The benefits of a rich and diverse city centre is right on the doorstep providing ease of access to national and international transport connections and a quick walk or cycle takes you to Newcastle's iconic and beautiful Quayside and riverside pedestrian and cycle routes, cafes, bars and cultural venues.

Heritage

One Founders Place sits where George and Robert Stephenson's first purpose built locomotive factory was established in 1823. Their innovative engineering work drove the global Industrial Revolution, giving this site and the remaining historic buildings a unique character and history of entrepreneurship and epoch-changing outcomes.

Who we are:

We are a joint venture partnership between Thriving Investments-igloo and Newcastle City Council, who together are delivering an exemplary urban neighbourhood at the heart of the Stephenson Quarter.

One Founders Place is the stunning gateway building to this mixed-use quarter, and will be one of a family of climate positive developments which support wellbeing and vibrancy at this central, historic site.

Our purpose is 'to lead the way in making places that people love and the planet needs'.

We are challenging ourselves to meet the climate emergency head on - building planet positive places which go beyond the buildings, to deliver the activities, relationships and public spaces that support wellbeing and nature in our city.

Our developments are "powered by igloo footprint®" a process which Thriving Investments-igloo use to support delivery of great projects on behalf of our clients.

Wellbeing: Delivering Quality of Life

Community: Building Social Capital

Climate: Delivering Planet Positive Places

Circular: Providing Finite Resources

Nature: Rewilding the City

Place: Healthy, Happy Neighbourhoods

6 dimensions aligned with the UN Sustainable Development Goals help us to harness the power of like-minded organisations all pulling in the same direction.

Who is
One Founders Place for?

Innovative Businesses

One Founders Place represents an attitude and a state of mind, based on positivity and ambition. It provides a unique pre-let opportunity for an innovative business that values the planet, their people and their work-life experience equally.

Highly distinctive on the city's skyline, it will be synonymous with its occupier and is sure to become one of Newcastle's most prized architectural and design gems. And it's just as sure to bring a sense of flow and ease to all who work within.
